

How to Link to a Privacy Policy URL on Blogger

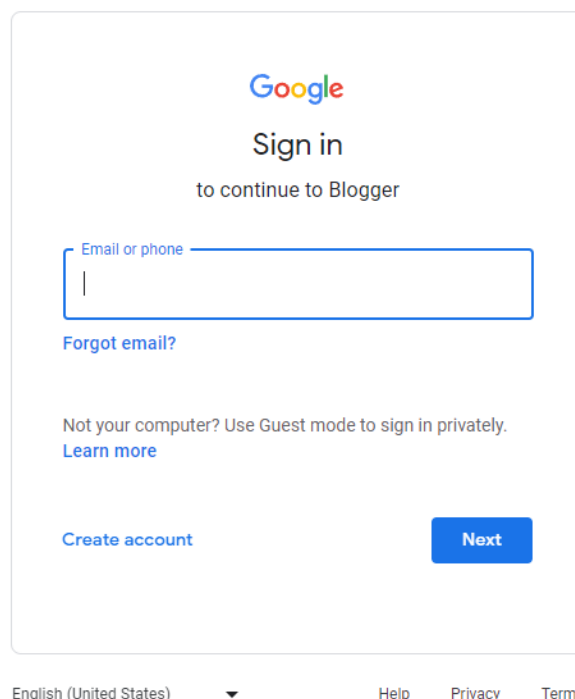

Blogger™

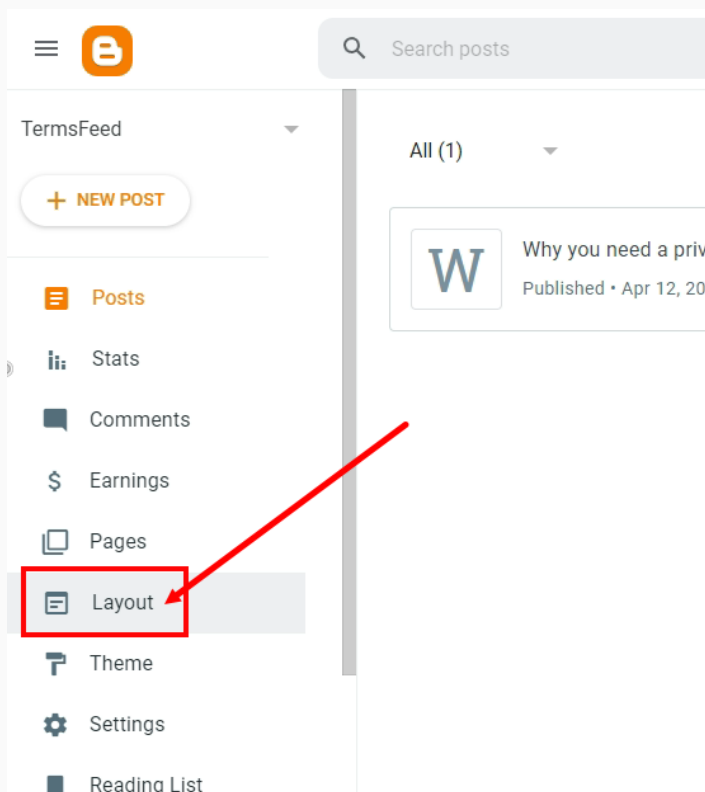

Steps:

1. Log in to Blogger. (Note: You'll need to have a Google account.)

2. From Blogger's Dashboard, go to Layout:

3. If your theme has a footer, as in our example, scroll to the footer section. Under footer-1, click + Add a Gadget:

4. When the Add a Gadget window opens, scroll down and click Pages:

5. Next, configure the page list. Name your list (for example, Legal), and go to Add a New Item:

- Under Page Name, type Privacy Policy:

- Next, add a Page URL to link to your Privacy Policy.

In order to get the Privacy Policy URL link, go to the TermsFeed Privacy Policy Generator to create the Privacy Policy and get the hosted Privacy Policy URL.

- Once you have the Privacy Policy created by TermsFeed, click Copy from the Link to your Privacy Policy section to copy the URL:
